Portland Timbers, Portland Thorns FC, and Levy unveil new Park Provisions hospitality brand, expanded menus and dining options

New hospitality brand will deliver Portland-raised flavors and expanded food and beverage offerings across concessions, clubs, and suites

PORTLAND, Ore. (May 20, 2019) – When fans enter Providence Park – which will be reopened this summer following an $85 million, privately funded transformation – for the much-anticipated Portland Timbers home opener on June 1, they’ll also notice a new look and feel to the stadium’s food and beverage service. The Timbers, Portland Thorns FC, and Levy worked together throughout the offseason to craft a hospitality brand and promise unique to Providence Park. Park Provisions will operate as the hospitality team serving Providence Park, powered by Levy’s operational prowess.

Park Provisions goes beyond new logos and colors on uniforms and menus. The brand signifies a commitment to working with Portland-based restaurants and providers, as well as delivering authentic hospitality, exceptional service, and unrivaled experiences on game day and beyond.

“We are proud to offer our fans a wide variety of the best local flavors around, and to set a new standard for everything fans taste at Providence Park,” said Mike Golub, president of business for the Timbers and Thorns FC. “In working closely with Levy throughout the stadium-transformation process, we realized a great opportunity to deliver a special experience unique to Providence Park and Portland.”

Expanded Portland flavors, personalized dining experiences

Providence Park’s renovations deliver 19 new dining destinations across concessions and increase the stadium’s points of sale by 30 percent. Among the hospitality highlights curated by Park Provisions:

- Portland favorites Podnah’s Pit and HOTLIPS Pizza join the dining lineup, and fans will notice an expanded menu of Tillamook dishes across Providence Park
- The KeyBank Club introduces several new food and beverage options, including a refreshed bar and food kiosk on the deck serving cheesesteaks and other fan favorites
- Evergreen Corner, a new destination in Section 113 offers a walk-in beer bar and food kiosk serving an array of Tillamook dishes
- Vendors will now sell beer and snacks in the Timbers Army section in the North End
- Fans in Field Seats can order from an updated in-seat menu featuring Pacific Northwest favorites like a Dungeness crab cocktail
