From The Pitch to Plate: Levy Signed as Food & Beverage Provider at the Arthur M. Blank U.S. Soccer National Training Center

CHICAGO & ATLANTA (July 7, 2025) – Levy, a leader in food and beverage hospitality for sports and entertainment, announced today that it will provide culinary operations at the new Arthur M. Blank U.S. Soccer National Training Center. Located just outside of Atlanta, this state-of-the-art facility is set to open in Spring 2026 and will serve as the new headquarters of the U.S. Soccer Federation and the official home of soccer in the United States, including all U.S. National Teams. The complex will include more than a dozen soccer fields, over 100,000 sq. ft. of indoor courts, and more than 200,000 sq. ft. of high-performance facilities.

Levy—also behind food and beverage operations at Mercedes-Benz Stadium, State Farm Arena, and the Georgia World Congress Center—will work with the U.S. Soccer Federation over the next year to design innovative, functional dining areas at the National Training Center, including a full-service kitchen, a customizable dining space with chef’s tables, and menus developed jointly by U.S. Soccer’s culinary and nutrition staff and Levy chefs. The space will also be flexible enough to host a variety of public events.

“It’s an honor to serve the athletes and all those who work in service to soccer every day,” said Andy Lansing, CEO of Levy. “The momentum behind soccer in the U.S. is extraordinary, and it’s inspiring us to match that passion with customized hospitality experiences for everyone at the Arthur M. Blank U.S. Soccer National Training Center. We look forward to opening this amazing facility and a landmark year for soccer in America.”

With the National Training Center, Levy continues to grow its industry-leading footprint in soccer both in the U.S. and globally. In the U.S., Levy partners with more than 25 MLS, NWSL and USL clubs to serve fans on match day at venues across the country, as well as provides culinary services at multiple training facilities. Globally, Levy leads the food and beverage experience at many of Europe’s most iconic venues, including Tottenham Hotspur Stadium, Stamford Bridge and Johan Cruyff Arena.

Looking ahead to the 2026 FIFA World Cup, Levy’s hospitality teams will serve soccer fans in Atlanta, Kansas City, Seattle and the San Francisco Bay Area.
