

FUTURE LEGENDS COMPLEX SELECTS LEVY AS HOSPITALITY PARTNER

Levy will serve visitors across 118-acre complex, including professional stadium

WINDSOR, Colo. -- Future Legends Complex is proud to announce a partnership with Levy to craft a food, beverage and hospitality experience for visitors of the new 118-acre complex, now under construction and set to open in spring 2022. Levy, the market leader defining world-class hospitality at sports & entertainment venues, will work with Future Legends Complex to deliver unique food and beverage experiences across concessions, catering, restaurants and suites.

Co-founded by the Katofsky Family ownership group and former Colorado Rockies outfielder Ryan Spilborghs, Future Legends Complex is a new 118-acre sports, entertainment, and retail development coming to Northern Colorado. Future Legends offers state-of-the-art playing facilities, a professional stadium and professional sports organizations including the Northern Colorado Owlz, dorm-style lodging for tournament participants, as well as hospitality options, restaurants and other amenities on-site.

"Future Legends is very excited to be partnering with Levy as a global leader in hospitality to elevate our food and beverage offerings," Future Legends CEO Jeff Katofsky said. "We are passionate about providing the best possible hospitality and fan experience to all of our visitors; Levy matches that passion and will help us achieve that aim."

"Future Legends Complex is such an exciting venue because it will be the home of so many memories, whether a family weekend, a night out at the game, or a social gathering," said Andy Lansing, President and CEO of Levy. "We're thrilled to join with Future Legends to elevate each one of these visits. Every food and beverage experience, from fan favorites in concessions to a restaurant outing after the event will be unique, celebrate all the details that make this place memorable, and deliver welcoming hospitality."

In Colorado, Levy serves Buffs fans at University of Colorado athletic venues, and has partnered with the Colorado Springs Switchbacks FC at its new downtown stadium. The company's portfolio also includes acclaimed restaurants and event venues.

When Future Legends opens in 2022, visitors will have a wide variety of food and beverage options, from fast fan-favorites to elevated Colorado staples. A primary focus of the partnership will be curating a menu that embodies all Northern Colorado has to offer. The area's buzzing craft brewery scene will be represented in contained restaurant and concessions spaces, so visitors can enjoy away from the youth sports-centered areas on the complex.
